

ICT20115

Full time/ part time non trainees: the learning program is conducted over 30 weeks (not including any holidays) consisting of 2 days weekly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do study outside of classroom hours, approximately 2 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. These hours are based on full time study, part time is pro rata.

South Australian training: the learning program is conducted over 32 weeks (not including holidays), consisting of 1 day per fortnight classroom based training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 8 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks.

Other methods of training: There are other methods of training available. These depend on specific organisational requirements. See individual training schedules if none of the above apply.

Integrity Business College offers rolling intakes.

ICT30115

Full time non trainees: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks consisting of 2 days per week classroom based training. These hours are based on full time study (Centrelink approved).

Classroom Trainees: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 1 day weekly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 5 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. Four workplace visits conducted quarterly during the 12 month traineeship. These hours are based on attending weekly classroom training, anything less is pro rata.

Online: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 3 hours per fortnight online training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 11 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. TRAINEES ONLY; a minimum of four workplace visits conducted quarterly during the traineeship (12 hours).

South Australian training: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 1 day per fortnight classroom based training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 9 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks.

Other methods of training: There are other methods of training available.

Integrity Business College offers rolling intakes.

SBAT ICT30115

School based trainees: The learning program is conducted over 45 weeks, consisting of 1 day weekly classroom based training and 1 day (7 hours) per week of practical work-placement during school terms. The participant is also expected to do study out of classroom hours, approximately 2 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. Four workplace and school visits conducted during the 12 month traineeship (quarterly). Integrity Business College commences this program in December to continue through to the following school year. Entry is permitted after December by negotiation.

ICT40415

Full time non trainees: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks consisting of 2 days per week classroom based training. These hours are based on full time study (Centrelink approved).

Classroom Trainees: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 1 day fortnightly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 12 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. Four workplace visits conducted quarterly during the 12 month traineeship. These hours are based on attending weekly classroom training, anything less is pro rata.

Online: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 3 hours per fortnight online training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 15 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. TRAINEES ONLY; a minimum of four workplace visits conducted quarterly during the traineeship.

South Australian training: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 1 day per fortnight classroom based training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 13 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks.

Other methods of training: There are other methods of training available.

Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with the above methods of training.

Pathways

Classroom Trainees; the learning program is conducted over 40 weeks, consisting of 1 day fortnightly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do study out of classroom hours, approximately 2 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks.

ICT50115

Full time/ part time non trainees; the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks (not including any holidays) consisting of 2 days weekly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do study outside of classroom hours, approximately 5 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. These hours are based on full time study, part time is pro rata.

Other methods of training; There are other methods of training available.

Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with the above methods of training.

BSB30115

Classroom Trainees; the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 1 day weekly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 5 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. Four workplace visits conducted quarterly during the 12 month traineeship. These hours are based on attending weekly classroom training, anything less is pro rata.

Workplace Trainees; the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 7 workplace visits for training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of self-paced study, approximately 9 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks.

Distance training; the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks. The participant is expected to do all study self-paced within the designated timeframe, approximately 10 hours per week. Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with this method of training.

Other methods of training; There are other methods of training available. These depend on specific organisational requirements.

Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with the above methods of training. This means learners can start at any time and individual learners could be at different stages in the program.

BSB30115 SBAT

School based trainees; the learning program is conducted over 32 weeks (not including school holidays), consisting of 1 day weekly classroom based training and 1 day per week of practical work-placement. The participant is also expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 4 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. Four workplace and school visits conducted during the 12 month traineeship (quarterly). Integrity Business College commences this program at the beginning of each school year. Entry is permitted at Semester 2 (July) if required by negotiation.

BSB30415

Part time non trainees; The learning program is conducted over 52 weeks consisting of 1/2 day weekly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do a considerable amount of study outside of classroom hours, approximately 6 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. These hours are based on part time study.

Classroom Trainees; the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 1/2 day weekly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 6 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. Four workplace visits conducted (quarterly) during the traineeship. These hours are based on attending weekly classroom training, anything less is pro rata.

Workplace Trainees; the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 7 workplace visits for training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of self-paced study, approximately 10 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks.

Distance training; the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks. The participant is expected to do all study self-paced within the designated timeframe, approximately 10 hours per week. Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with this method of training.

Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with the above methods of training. This means learners can start at any time and that in the classroom situations individual learners could be at different stages in the program.

Other methods of training; There are other methods of training available. These depend on specific organisational requirements.

BSB40415

Part time non trainees: the learning program is conducted over 35 weeks consisting of 1/2 day monthly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do a considerable amount of study outside of classroom hours, approximately 11 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. These hours are based on part time study.

Trainees: the learning program is conducted over 35 weeks, consisting of 1/2 day weekly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 11 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. Four workplace visits conducted (quarterly) during the traineeship. These hours are based on attending monthly classroom training, anything less is pro rata.

Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with the above methods of training. This means learners can start at any time and that in the classroom situations individual learners could be at different stages in the program.

BSB40515

Classroom Trainees: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 1/2 day weekly classroom based training. The participant is also expected to do a considerable amount of study out of classroom hours, approximately 5 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks. Four workplace visits conducted (quarterly) during the traineeship. These hours are based on attending weekly classroom training, anything less is pro rata.

Workplace Trainees: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 7 workplace visits for training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of self-paced study, approximately 10 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks.

Distance training: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks. The participant is expected to do all study self-paced within the designated timeframe, approximately 9 hours per week. Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with this method of training.

Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with the above methods of training. This means learners can start at any time and that in the classroom situations individual learners could be at different stages in the program.

Other methods of training: There are other methods of training available. These depend on specific organisational requirements.

SIR30312

Workplace Trainees: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 7 workplace visits for training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of self-paced study, approximately 7 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks.

Other methods of training: There are other methods of training available. These depend on specific organisational requirements. See individual training schedules if none of the above apply.

Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with the above methods of training. This means learners can start at any time and individual learners could be at different stages in the program.

SIR40212

Workplace Trainees: the learning program is conducted over 52 weeks, consisting of 7 workplace visits for training. The participant is expected to do a considerable amount of self-paced study, approximately 6 hours per week, to conduct research and complete assessment tasks.

Other methods of training: there are other methods of training available. These depend on specific organisational requirements. See individual training schedules if none of the above apply.

Integrity Business College offers a rolling intake with the above methods of training. This means learners can start at any time and individual learners could be at different stages in the program.